

Jubilee Dialogue

Europe and the world in 2023

Wednesday 26 June 2013 | WP1264

1 Carlton Gardens, London

This discussion will bring together a small group of international experts to explore political, economic, social and environmental trends over the next ten years and consider what they mean for Britain and Europe.

The discussion will be structured around three questions:

- How is the world changing, and what will it look like in 2023?
- What are the principal opportunities and challenges that Europe will face?
- What policy decisions should Britain and Europe take in 2013 to enhance our future prospects?

---

1430-1500

Participant registration; tea and coffee served

---

1500-1510

Welcome and introduction to the meeting

Richard Burge

Chief Executive, Wilton Park, Steyning

---

1510-1630

Opening remarks followed by roundtable discussion

The Right Hon David Lidington

Minister for Europe, Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO), London

Chair: Richard Burge

First speaker: Sir Robert Cooper

Special Adviser to EU High Representative Catherine Ashton on Burma/Myanmar

Second speaker: Almut Möller

Head, Alfred von Oppenheim Centre for European Studies, German Council on Foreign Relations (DGAP), Berlin

---

1630-1700

Reception