

Wilton Park

Background reading

Leading by example: implementing Anti-Corruption Summit commitments on transparency in public procurement

Wednesday 14 – Friday 16 September 2016 | WP1502

Find below a list of suggested links and documents which are suggested as background reading prior to participating in the workshop.

- Basic factsheet on open contracting.
- The Open Government Guide - chapter on opening up public contracting.
- The Center for Global Development's report on publishing government contracts: addressing concerns and easing implementation.
- Case study on Slovakia & what happened when the government decided to publish all of its contracts. Answer: lots of good things including money saved, increased competition and greater public trust. Blog on it here.
- Some background on Open Contracting Partnership's work with Prozorro in Ukraine and blogs about the impact and lessons here.
- Mexico's leadership on open contracting
- TI report on G20 beneficial ownership implementation
- TI technical guide to implementing the G20 beneficial ownership principles
- TI blog on the case for a Global Beneficial Ownership Register
- TI practical guide to curbing corruption in public procurement
- TI implementation guide on integrity pacts in public procurement